

Dementia Research Network Ireland are hosting free monthly 1-hour webinars on hot topics in dementia research. These webinars will provide an opportunity to hear from those working in basic science, clinical and social research as well as from people living with dementia and their families. Each one-hour webinar will include a Q&A with the audience.

Target Audience: Researchers, clinicians, health & social care practitioners, the public including people living with dementia and their families.

Book Here: <https://bit.ly/3hRtZsP>

Topic 4: Hearing & Vision Impairment in Dementia (Mon 24th Jan 2022 11-12.10pm)

Time	Topic	Speakers
11.00 – 11.05	Welcome	Dr. Carol Rogan, Scientific Project Manager, DRNI
11.05 – 11.15	Hearing and Vision Impairment in Dementia: Insights from the SENSE-Cog Project	Prof. Iracema Leroi, Associate Professor Geriatric Psychiatry, Trinity College Dublin/ St. James's Hospital
11.15 – 11.35	International Guidelines on Management of Hearing and Vision Impairment in People with Dementia	Dr. Jenna Littlejohn, Manchester Centre for Audiology and Deafness, University of Manchester, UK
	Professionals' views of managing hearing and vision impairment in a memory clinic
11.35 – 11.45	Perspectives of a person living with dementia & hearing loss and their care partner	Facilitated by JP Connelly, Clinical Research Manager, St. James's Hospital
11.45 – 11.55	Sensory-Cognitive health in nursing homes: the SENSE-Cog CARE Project	Helen Tormey, Study Coordinator, SENSE-Cog CARE
11.55 – 12.10pm	Audience Q&A	