

ARUK Network NI /DRNI / DTI Joint Meeting

21 October 2024

Canada Room, Queen's University Belfast

10:30	Welcome and opening remarks Dr Claire McEvoy (ARUK NI Network) and Dr Vanessa Moore (DRNI)
10:45 – 11:30	NIHR dementia trials network UK Professor Cath Mummery (University College London)
11:30 – 12:00	Dementia trials in the Northern Irish Context Professor Bernadette McGuinness (Queen's University Belfast)
12:00 – 12:30	Dementia Trials Ireland - Empowering excellence in clinical dementia research Dr Anne-Marie Millar (Trinity College Dublin)
12:30 – 13:00	iREACH: Capability for dementia research in Northern Ireland Professor Judy Bradley (Queen's University Belfast)
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch
14:00 – 15:00	Efficacy of a Protein-Enriched Mediterranean Diet with or without Exercise on Nutritional Status and Cognitive Performance in At-Risk Older Adults: Findings from the PROMED-EX RCT. - Nicola Ann Ward (Queen's University Belfast) Assessing Ireland's Healthcare Preparedness for Dementia Disease-Modifying Therapies: Strategies for Effective Integration and Implementation. - Sevinç Elif Şen (Trinity College Dublin) The RESIST study: A longitudinal observational study examining cognitive change in rheumatoid arthritis patients with mild cognitive impairment being treated with a TNF-inhibitor. - Calum Marr (Queen's University Belfast) Transcutaneous Vagus Nerve Stimulation in Amnesic Mild Cognitive Impairment. - Dr Helena Dolphin (Trinity College Dublin)
15:00	Close
15:00 onwards	ECR Social Event (sponsored by DRNI)

TO REGISTER YOUR ATTENDANCE PLEASE CLICK HERE